Local flight

The helicopter ride to Everest base camp is usually on time. The Everest base camp helicopter tour does not involve any commercial flights unless you take it from Lukla or anywhere else on the EBC trail. The helicopter ride from Kathmandu to Lukla takes 45 minutes. Then it takes another 30 minutes to fly to Kalapatthar.

During busy times, we fly by helicopter to Everest base camp often, and most of the flights are on time. As we said before, if the weather is bad, there may be a small delay. We cannot promise a set departure time during the off-season.
